

QUBOID

QUBOID IS ONE OF OUR MOST POPULAR EVENTS AND, CHALLENGES TEAMS AND INDIVIDUALS TO COMPLETE A SERIES OF NERVEJANGLING TASKS UNDER PRESSURE, AND AGAINST THE CLOCK!

Split into teams of around 6 people, your group will face approximately 10 different challenges during 'Quboid'. Each challenge or task begins with a short practice session where teams have the opportunity to get to grips with the task that faces them.

Once the practice session is over, it's time for the teams to make a live attempt inside our inflatable challenge zone! This giant, inflatable cube, complete with atmospheric lighting really adds to the pressure as guests enter, ready to take on their challenge.

During 'Cubed', teams will face both team and individual challenges. For individual tasks, teams must select the person from their team that has shown the most skill during the practice session, to enter the arena.

Team challenges, on the other hand, are completed by the entire team and will require everyone to enter the arena' together.

Once a team or individual enters the arena, they will have three attempts to complete the challenge successfully. If they complete the task on the first attempt, their team will be awarded 20,000 points, reducing to a measly 5,000 points if it takes them all three attempts.

Beware though, if, after three attempts your team has failed to complete the task, the points will be distributed amongst the other teams!

Quboid is a superb indoor event that everyone will love. All of the guests will be active and engaged throughout the activity – there is no standing around or twiddling thumbs. The challenges and tasks have been designed to be suitable for everyone and are fun, varied, and challenging.
