CLAP HAPPY

Drive your delegates Clap Happy with a bucket load of rubber gloves as they create a highly energised clapping orchestra!

Clap Happy is a huge blast of colour, fun and energy, designed as an icebreaker or energiser. We start by issuing everyone in the room with coloured rubber gloves! Every colour follows a different clapping rhythm to create a colourful clapping orchestra.

Your expert facilitator will lead participants on a rhythm adventure relying on coordination, focus, communication, and team work. There will be three separate 'clapping departments' used to create one percussive performance. We add lots of audience participation and unique facilitation to create a clapping crescendo.

This 10-45 minute event will have everyone on their feet, working together and feeling energised.
